James Beckwith, president and CEO of Five Star Bancorp in Sacramento, has been named chairman of the Valley Vision board of directors.

Valley Vision, the independent nonprofit that aims to improve the economic, social and environmental health of the Sacramento region, on Thursday announced its key officers for 2011.

Others include Vice Chairwoman Martha Lofgren, principal of the Brewer Lofgren LLP law firm in Carmichael and former city manager of Folsom, and Treasurer Jim Bayless, who has served locally as president of GreenBuilt and Treasure Homes Management Co.

Bill Mueller, now in his sixth year with Valley Vision, will continue as chief executive.
